PETITION TO REVIVE PATENT APPLICATION
FOR FAILING TO PAY ISSUE FEE

SIR:

On September 19, 2005, the Office issued a Notice of Abandonment in this case for failure to pay the issue fee.

The issue fee in this case was paid on July 30, 2003. For reasons that are not clear to applicants, a second Notice of Allowance issued, on April 21, 2004. At that time, Applicants submitted papers questioning this, and pointing out that the fees had been paid. See the Communication dated April 27, 2004, received by the USPTO on April 29, 2004. Copies of these papers and stamped, return receipt postcards, are attached.

It is applicants understanding that if an issue fee is paid once, no further issue fees are due thereafter. There was no fee increase relative to the two issue fees either. Hence, the Abandonment is not believed correct and should be withdrawn.

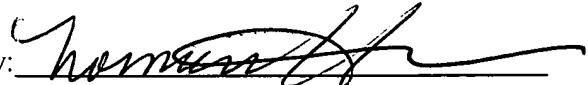

Should there by any fees due herewith, please charge them to Deposit Account No. 50-0624.

25578679.1

As it has been over 2 years since the issue fee was properly paid, it is believed this case should move to issue immediately.

Respectfully submitted,

FULBRIGHT & JAWORSKI, L.L.P.
